

Classic Mariners Regatta 2024

Classic Mariners Regatta 2024

Sunday Pursuit Race

The Start

There are no Classes for this race each boat will be given it's own start time based on that boat's PHRF rating and the length of the course. The slowest boat starts first.

The Start/Finish line will be in the South end of the Bay and will be square to the wind and boats will start to windward. If in doubt, for a windward start the Pin will be on your Port side.

The first boat will be given the full start sequence. Each subsequent boat will be given a single horn at their assigned start time but will not be announced.

Should the first start have to be delayed for any reason the Race Committee will announce on VHF 68 the number of minutes everyone should add to their start time. This number will also be displayed on the Committee Boat.

The course

The course diagrammed on the left is 9 nautical miles around.

If wind has N component;-

Start
 Yel Tet 1 to stbd.
 Orange Cyl 2 to Port
 Yel Tet 3 to Stbd
 Yel Tet 4 to Stbd
 Yel Tet 5 to Stbd
 Finish

If wind has S component;

Start
 Yel Tet 5 to Port
 Yel Tet 4 to Port
 Yel Tet 3 to Port
 Orange Cyl 2 to Stbd
 Yel Tet 1 to Port
 Finish

NOTE:- The Pt Hudson Bell Buoy is to be always left to shoreward.

Possible Short Course:-

The wind forecast may indicate a need for a shorter course. In which case the general shape of the course and the numbering and rounding order of the marks will remain the same. Mark T3 may move SE and T1 & T5 may move NE

Individual start times for both courses will be distributed at the Sunday Morning Skipper's Meeting

Time limit:- For all boats - 4 hours after the start of the first boat.

