OUTSIDE OF FALMOUTH

1. CAPE COD NATIONAL SEASHORE- "A man may stand there and put all America behind him." So said Henry David Thoreau. Forty miles of pristine sandy beach, marshes, ponds and uplands. Lighthouses, cranberry bogs, swimming, walking and biking trails. Unbelievable dunes. Two Visitor Centers-one in Eastham and the other in Provincetown. Not to be missed.

2. PLYMOUTH, MA—A short drive off cape—where it all began. A great place to visit, plenty of parking on the waterfront, see Plymouth Rock, the Mayflower, walk to restaurants, shops or take a scenic boat tour many available. One will even drop you in Provincetown, the tip of the outer cape.

3. BOSTON, MA @ 60 miles from Falmouth, you can take a bus and spend the day-so much history and Fall is a perfect time to visit

4. NEWPORT RI- @ 1.25 hour drive from Falmouth. You all probably know it as a yachting community ; besides the bustling harbor and yachting center you have the Mansions built in the guided age open for tours. Beautiful beaches and the ‘Cliff Walk’ which wind behind many of the mansions as well Salve Regina University.
